

Attachment A

10.7 Claims

"The Executive is authorized, where security considerations require, to adjust, determine, make final settlement, and authorize payment from confidential funds of claims arising out of the negligence of CIA employees outside the continental limits of the United States and its possessions in such cases as may be determined to be compensable under the laws and regulations pertaining to the payment of foreign claims. Settlement and payment may be made directly or, for purposes of security, by advance payment of reimbursement through the agency to which such laws and regulations normally pertain. The investigation and processing of such claims will follow, so far as practicable, the practices and procedures of the agency appropriate to the CIA representatives' circumstances, and use of such agency's personnel and facilities is authorized through such local arrangements as may be practical and secure."
